

The RefWorks Welcome Screen

The RefWorks welcome screen displays when you have an account, but no references in it. Once you have references in RefWorks, you will see all your references instead.

From the default screen (welcome screen) you can reach all the functionality of RefWorks through the menu bar. Each menu option is displayed below. Some options have submenu options that are real time and effort savers.

