

2012 Undergraduate Research Award Application Checklist

Eligibility:

To be eligible for consideration, applicants must:

- be undergraduates at any class level and in any discipline (arts, humanities, social sciences, sciences) at the University of Georgia;
- have completed or be in the process of creating a research project for credit in conjunction with the CURO program at the University of Georgia OR have submitted an abstract to the CURO Symposium by February 10, 2012 (<http://curo.uga.edu/students/presenting-research/symposium>). A project can be submitted only once;
- schedule and attend a library research conference with a UGA librarian before completion of the project.
Due date for Librarian conferences is March 5, 2012

(URL: <http://www.libs.uga.edu/researchaward/conference.html>)

- agree to contribute to a display about their research mounted for public exhibition following receipt of the award, and also agree to allow the addition of their essay to the University of Georgia Libraries' Archives and CURO Reading Room

Complete / submit the following:

- Meet with librarian for library research conference (be sure to bring the application form with you to the meeting) by March 5, 2012
- Application Form with librarian's comments and signature
- 750-1000 word (3-4 page) essay describing your research strategies and experience
- Project reference list/bibliography (or bibliography in progress if project is not yet complete), in proper citation format (Chicago, MLA, APA, Turabian)
- Final version of abstract
- If applying you are NOT a CURO student, you must also submit your abstract to the CURO Symposium by February 10, 2012 (online form at <http://curo.uga.edu/students/presenting-research/symposium>).

Application deadlines:

- Research conference, March 5, 2012
- Essay and application materials, March 19, 2012

Submit mail or deliver the completed application package to:

Caroline Barratt (ccason@uga.edu)
UGA Libraries Undergraduate Research Award
Miller Learning Center, Room 373
Athens, GA 30602