

Getting From the Main Library to the Science Library or Science to Main

By Bus:

From the Main Library to the Science Library: Take the Milledge Avenue bus from the stop on the west side of Jackson Street, or the North/South bus from the stop on the east side of Jackson Street, to the stop opposite Soule Hall on Sanford Drive. Follow the sidewalk that runs between Soule and Dawson Hall to the Science Library.

From the Science Library to the Main Library: Take the North/South bus from the stop in front of Soule Hall on Sanford Drive to the stop on the east side of Jackson Street, in front of the Visual Arts building.

Busses run when classes are in session.

On foot:

Walking between the Main and Science Libraries can take 10 to 15 minutes. Each library is on a hill; walking from one library to the other requires climbing stairs and taking sidewalks with a significant upward slope. Shortcuts are marked on the map.

For more information about the UGA Libraries, see www.libs.uga.edu or call (706) 542-3251.