Capitol Curios: History of the Capitol Museum

Why does the Georgia Capitol Museum have a two-headed cow, a brass spittoon, a broken lightbulb, and an old doorknob? Visit us this month to hear stories about some of our more curious items. Learn how the Georgia Capitol Museum came to be, and design your own museum.

Check in at the Tour Desk
206 Washington St. SW
Atlanta, GA, 30334
Adults must present a state-issued photo ID.

This project is supported by the Georgia Humanities through appropriations made by the Georgia General Assembly.