Richard B. Russell Library for Political Research and Studies Collection

The Russell Library holds approximately 500 collections and 1000 oral history interviews of politicians, political parties, public policy organizations, federal, state, and local officials, and political activists and observers from modern Georgia (1900-present).

The scope of the Library's collections documents the broad spectrum of political activities in modern Georgia through over 20,000 linear feet of:

- correspondence
- speeches
- drafts of legislation
- domestic and foreign policy papers
- polling data
- campaign materials
- electronic records
- photographs
- film
- video
- sound recordings
- artifacts
- oral histories

The collections also document the global relationships and interests formed by Georgians through political action, foreign service, trade, and other activities.
